8:15 AM - 9:00 AM	A 21st Century Perspective of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion in Board Recruiting Diversity on corporate boards has been proven to be good for business and, with Latinos numbering nearly 20% of the US population, it makes business sense for boardrooms to include the Hispanic/Latino perspective, to offer insight into the new mainstream economy. Unfortunately, recent board trends shed light to a different reality. Hispanic/Latino directors continue to be woefully underrepresented and remain the least tapped. Hear from search firm leaders discuss how they and their organizations are supporting the LCDA mission to alter the current narrative. Opening Remarks: Raúl Yanés - Managing Director, Chief Compliance Officer and Head of Non-Financial Risk for Morgan Stanley Moderator: Geisha Williams - Former President & CEO, PG&E; Director: Siemens Energy Panelists: Victor Arias - Partner/Managing Director, Diversified Search Paulo Mendes - Latin American Regional Leader, Heidrick & Struggles Francisco Paret - Partner, Egon Zehnder Tierney Remick - Vice Chairman and Co-leader-Global Board and CEO Practice, Korn Ferry	Marquis Ballroom, 9th Floor
