

Message Boards

Frequently Asked Questions

The purpose of the message boards is to provide a platform for members to ask questions and collaborate.

Who has access to it?

The message board feature is a resource for active LCDA members.

Where can I access the directory?

The directory is only accessible from the Member Portal. You must be logged into your portal to view the message boards.

Under Member Menu, click the Communication icon to view the Message Boards option.

Can I create a Message Board?

No. If you have suggestions for a message board, please contact Ozzie Gromada Meza, Director of Membership and Research.

I like to receive alerts once a day of relevant topics. Is that possible?

Yes. You can Opt-In to receive a daily digest of new activity for any message board or topic once a day.
